HONORS COLLEGE DEADLINE APPROACHING

There is still time to apply by the final deadline, February 14th. Be sure your seniors apply to The University of Arizona and complete the Honors College application through their UA Future page. The final Honors application deadline is February 14th, with a decision notification beginning March 2nd.

COLLEGE OF PHARMACY: EARLY ASSURANCE PROGRAM

The University of Arizona College of Pharmacy offers an Early Assurance Program for high school students who are committed to pursuing a career in pharmacy. This program provides advanced admission to the PharmD program for a select group of high-achieving high school applicants. This is not the only pathway for PharmD admission, and it is not the best option for every student.

Students who are admitted to the Early Assurance Program are guaranteed a seat in the University of Arizona PharmD program, pending successful completion of all prerequisite requirements within two years of undergraduate study at the University of Arizona. In addition to being guaranteed a seat in the PharmD program, Early Assurance students are also exempt from the PCAT exam and are held to reduced experiential requirements.

Admission to the Early Assurance Program is competitive. The following factors will be considered in the review process:

- Minimum SAT MATH score of 660 or ACT MATH score of 28 required
- 6th-semester unweighted core high school GPA of 3.5 or higher strongly preferred
- Math and science coursework (specifically chemistry and biology), and general rigor of high school courses
- Evidence of your passion for the field of pharmacy, as demonstrated by your admission essays
- Commitment to community service, as demonstrated by your admission essays

The application for Fall 2020 Early Assurance admission is now available. Applications are considered on a rolling basis, with a final application deadline of July 1, 2020. Learn more here!
